

Embassy of India
Beijing

Launch of the official WeChat account of Embassy of India, Beijing

On the occasion of Pravasi Bharatiya Divas celebration on 9 January 2019, Embassy of India, Beijing launched their official WeChat account.

2. This is part of Embassy's social media outreach activity in China. WeChat application is a popular and widely used messaging and social media application in China. The official WeChat account of the Embassy of India, Beijing is accessible by scanning the QR code below.

3. This platform will provide useful information regarding Consular, Passport and Visa services offered by Embassy of India Beijing in English and Chinese. It will also provide other important information like contact details of Embassy, useful information related to commerce, tourism and cultural activities being conducted by Embassy of India Beijing.

