

Embassy of India
Beijing

Dated: 04th November, 2020

Rescheduling of VBM Flight

With regard to the planned VBM flight on 06 November from Delhi-Wuhan-Delhi, the Embassy has not received the required clearances from the Chinese authorities, who have indicated that more discussions are required in order to process these clearances. The proposed flight on 06 November is therefore being rescheduled.

Embassy is in touch with the Chinese side to work out the revised schedule of our future VBM flights to China. Embassy will release necessary information on the revised flight schedule in due course.

Separate instructions will be communicated to prospective passengers with regards to ticketing and other procedures.
